REVEAL Art Fair
Saratoga Springs, NY

June 29, 2018

Dear Friends,

Art is the way people see the world. Creating and experiencing art in all its many forms and styles helps us understand how our world used to be and how it is today. It might make us happy or sad, but it can always make us think.

Our city has long been a popular venue for artistic expression. This year, REVEAL International Contemporary Art Fair, a Saratoga Springs-based group of creative, hard-working people, will add a new dimension to art in our city by holding an exhibition the first week in August. This exciting effort will bring to our community nearly 150 artists from across our country and around the world.

We are pleased and honored that Saratoga Springs will serve as host for this milestone event, and we extend to everyone at REVEAL, and to all the visiting galleries, artists and attendees, our very best wishes for an inspiring and successful show.

We are delighted to have REVEAL join us in Saratoga Springs, we are certain it will be very successful, and we look forward to the start of an annual event in the city.

Sincerely,

Meg Kelly
